PART III

The Life and Times of
The Four Notable Kingdoms

The 4th Notable Kingdom

From a Law 3 perspective, the major difference between the Yavan saga and that of the four notable kingdoms is the number of sources the Bible provides in telling their stories. Whereas the Western King vision is the sole source for Yavan, the books of Daniel, Revelation and Ezekiel contain six other independent accounts of the four notable kingdoms; all of which begin at some point after the first king of Yavan is broken. When the Alexander anachronism is expunged from these six accounts, the simplistic explanation of Alexander's four generals is replaced with a massive volume of chaotic endtime details that demonstrates the prudence of having waived the add unto/take away clause of Law 2.

Daniel 8-12	Western King Vision	Four Notable Kingdoms & A Little Horn
Daniel 7	Four Sea Kings Vision	Four Kingdoms & Ten Kings & A Little Horn
Daniel 2	Nebuchadnezzar's Dream	Four Kingdoms & Ten Kings
Revelation 6	The Four Horsemen	Four Kings Going Forth To No Good
Revelation 17	The Ten Kings	4 th Notable Kingdom, Phase I
Revelation 13	Antichrist as the Beast	4 th Notable Kingdom, Phase II - Antichrist Days
Ezekiel 38-39	Gog of Magog	2 nd Notable Kingdom Invasion of Israel

It is quite fortunate, for the purposes of brevity, that most of the details in these six accounts are beyond the scope of this writing as they concern the antichrist¹ and Phase II of the 4th notable kingdom. Even with the antichrist verses eliminated, there still remains an inordinate amount of allegorical detail to disseminate and properly assign to the individual four kingdoms. However, the disorder of it all is greatly simplified by the numerous scriptures in which the Bible provides a clear and distinct dividing line between Phase I and Phase II of the 4th notable kingdom that establishes a definitive, cardinal point in time within the 2300 days. For this reason, it is less befuddling to begin the dissemination at the end of the Alexander anachronism when the antichrist usurps the ten kings of the 4th notable kingdom.

The Four Sea Beasts of Daniel 7

Of Daniel's three accounts, the sea beasts vision of Chapter 7 contains the majority of the details concerning the 4th notable kingdom. This vision is shown to Daniel in the same format as the Western King vision: he is shown the vision, and then an angelic encounter occurs followed by the interpretation. The first thing Daniel sees is the four winds of the heaven striving upon the great sea. This is referencing the worldwide societal turmoil created by the four notable kingdoms as they stand up in place of the first king of Yavan who has just been broken. Note that the animals used to describe the first two kingdoms – a lion with eagle's wings and a bear – are the national symbols of Great Britain, America, and Russia.

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon [541 B.C.] Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea [after the breaking of Yavan]. And four great beasts [notable kingdoms] came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

The first [notable kingdom] was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

And behold another beast, a second [notable kingdom], like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

After this I beheld, and lo another [3rd notable kingdom], like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast [the 4th notable kingdom], dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it [Phase I] had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns [kings].

I considered the horns, and, behold, [in Phase II] there came up among them another little horn [the antichrist], before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things. (Daniel 7.1-8)

This vision clearly distinguishes between the two phases of the 4th notable kingdom. Phase I shows the ten kings as dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly as they break the nations in pieces and stamp the residue with their feet. Phase II begins – and the Alexander anachronism ends – when the little horn, the antichrist, plucks up three of the ten kings by the roots. This necessarily means Phase II of the 4th notable kingdom ends up with seven kings, not ten.

The Four Metallic Kingdoms of Nebuchadnezzar's Dream – Daniel 2

Nebuchadnezzar's dream shows the four notable kingdoms as a great image formed of four different metals, the first being a head of gold that represents Nebuchadnezzar. The three metals representing the other notable kingdoms – breast and arms of silver, belly and thighs of brass, and legs of iron – appear in the descending order of their monetary value, insinuating that each notable kingdom will be, for all intents and purposes, lesser than the previous. This is reinforced by the toes (ten kings) on the feet of the 4th kingdom of iron being composed of two substances that do not mix, iron and clay. All four kingdoms, along with the ten kings, are broken in pieces by the Messiah at the Second Coming. Since there is no mention in the dream of the little horn taking over the ten kings, this account is of Phase I before the antichrist ascends as the little horn.

This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king [Nebuchadnezzar], art a king of kings: for the God [elohiym] of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all.

Thou art this head of gold [the 1st notable kingdom]. And after thee shall arise another [2nd notable] kingdom inferior to thee, and another third [notable] kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

And [Phase I of] the fourth [notable] kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

And in the days of these kings shall the God [elohiym] of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. (Daniel 2.36-44)

Lost in the darkness of Alexander and his four generals, the Scholastics are unaware that Nebuchadnezzar's dream, the Western King vision, and the sea beasts vision present three different accounts of the four notable kings; just as Matthew, Mark and Luke present three different accounts of Jesus. This lack of knowledge has resulted in the creation of the universally accepted theory that the great image in Nebuchadnezzar's dream is a prophecy of four consecutive empires that would rule the world up until the Second Coming: Babylon, Persia, Greece, and Rome, whose ancient empire will be revised as a ten-nation kingdom during the season of the antichrist. As with the Alexander anachronism, acceptance of this theory necessarily requires the acceptance of even more historical errors.

Daniel's interpretation contains two incongruent statements concerning the time frame in which the events portrayed in the dream will take place. The first states that Nebuchadnezzar art this head of gold on the great image, which mandates the four prophetic empires to have been the ancient empires of Babylon, Persia, Greece, and Rome. The other time related detail, however, declares that all four kingdoms in Nebuchadnezzar's dream are in existence at the Second Coming.

And in the days of these kings shall the God [el-Yahovah] of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. (Daniel 2.44)

The Bible is saturated with the reality that the the God of heaven sets up the kingdom which will stand for ever at the Second Coming of Jesus, therefore, Nebuchadnezzar and the Babylonian empire can only be symbolic of the 1st notable king and kingdom. Another problem with the four world empires theory is that each kingdom is portrayed as being inferior to its predecessor when they are, in fact, all superior to their predecessor: And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee. History is clear that the Roman empire was greater than the Greek, which was greater than the Persian, which was greater than the Babylonian. Despite the history, the four world empire theory has been elevated by the Scholastics from a tradition of men to a precept of God, just as was done with the Alexander tradition.

The prophetic truth contained in Nebuchadnezzar's dream is that an amalgamation of Daniel's three encounters with the four notable kings shows that Phase I of the 4th notable kingdom will be like iron, but the ten kings of which it will consist will be divided, and they will be partly strong and partly broken. The kingdom will be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. These same actions described by Daniel are also reiterated by John in his three accounts in Revelation of the 4th notable kingdom.

The Four Notable Kingdoms in Revelation

After Jesus dictated the seven letters to the seven churches in Asia Minor, He took John on a Great Escape to the throne room of Heaven to show him things which must be hereafter the beginning of the 2300 days. Once in Heaven, John was told to write down the things he saw: And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. John watched as the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, took the book from God and began to loose the seven seals thereof.

The opening salvo of judgements that the seven seals loose are just the first of three sets of judgements that God casts down upon the earth during the 2300 days. When the seventh seal is opened, seven trumpet judgements are sounded, the seventh of which initiates the pouring of seven vials of the wrath of God onto the Earth. The opening of these seals, trumpets, and vials occur in chronological order, creating a relative time line for the book of Revelation.

The first four seal judgements depict the four notable kings as four horseman; a.k.a., the four horsemen of the Apocalypse. Because the antichrist does not appear until later in the account, the description of the 4th horsemen is referencing Phase I of the 4th notable kingdom and is a part of the Alexander anachronism.

And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold a white horse [the 1st notable kingdom]: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. And there went out another horse that was red [the 2nd notable kingdom]: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse [the 3rd notable kingdom]; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. And I looked, and behold a pale [green] horse [4th notable kingdom - Phase I]: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth [the middle east], to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth. (Revelation 6.1-8)

According to the Greek text, the 4th notable king is actually riding a green horse; not a pale horse. It would seem the translators could not justify a green horse, so they translated the Greek word “chloros” as pale, in spite of having translated its other three usages in the New Testament as green. In their defense, the 16th century translators could not have been expected to foresee that Israel’s primary endtime mortal enemy, Hamas, would be represented by a green flag.

Hamas, the Palestinian terrorist group in control of the Gaza Strip on Israel’s southwest border, has two mandates: (i) to kill every Jew on the planet, and (ii) to usurp the Palestinian power base in the West Bank. As of today, Hamas can only attack Israel from the Gaza Strip, such as they did during the official moving of the America embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem. However, the future war at the Ulai river could quickly change all this.

It is not unreasonable, nor does it violate Law 3, to assume that Yavan's destruction of the Kurds and the Iranians will also neutralize Iran's terrorist proxies, Hezbollah and the Shiite forces in Iraq and Syria. This will, by elimination, render Hamas, with its green flag of sickly hate, as the dominant terrorist group in the middle east – the fourth part of the earth. The current demonic actions of Islamist terrorists that are routinely displayed in the world media for all to see are certainly in full compliance with the future actions of the 4th notable kingdom as described by Daniel and John.

The Ten Kings

John's other two accounts of the four notable kingdoms in Revelation portray the 4th kingdom as a seven headed, ten-horned beast whose body is a composite of the first three kingdoms. This composite assumption fits mathematically with the seven heads on the beast: the 1st, 2nd, and 4th notable kingdoms each have one head, and the 3rd has four.

Phase I – Revelation 17

Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters....So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication. (Revelation 17.1-6)

It is generally agreed by the Scholastics that the great whore represents the contaminated world religion which will come to power after Opening Day and the beginning of the 2300 days. The great whore will apparently maintain dominance over the ten kings of Phase I until the antichrist appears as Islam's Mahdi and Phase II begins.

Phase II – Revelation 13

And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast [the antichrist] rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon [Lucifer] gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. (Revelation 13.1-2)

The three animals used to describe Phase II are the same three animals, in reverse order, that Daniel saw coming out of the sea in chapter 7. The only difference is the lion no longer has its eagle's wings. Since the body of the beast is presented as a composite of the first three kingdoms (less the eagle's wings), it would appear that, in lieu of destroying the first three notable kingdoms, the 4th notable kingdom actually engulfs them. The following is a Law 2 compliant list of the actions of the ten kings.

Dan 07.07	the 4 th Sea Beast has Ten Horns
Dan 07.08	the 4 th Sea Beast has a little horn come up among the Ten Horns
Dan 07.24	the Ten Horns on the 4 th Sea Beast are Ten Kings that shall arise
Rev 17.12	the Ten Horns which thou sawest are Ten Kings

Dan 02.44	in the days of the Ten Kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom
Rev 17.12	the Ten Kings receive power as kings for one hour with the Beast
Rev 17.13	the Ten Kings have one mind and give their power and strength to the Beast

Rev 17.16	the Ten Kings hate the great whore and burn her with fire
Rev 17.14	the Ten Kings will make war with the Lamb and be overcome by Him

The Ten Kings and the 83rd Psalm

Another biblical detail hidden deep within the black hole of the Alexander anachronism is the fact that the identities of the ten kings are laid out in plain ancient Hebrew in the 83rd Psalm; an account of a ten nation Islamist confederacy whose mission is to cut them [Israel] off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. Having no exposure to the details of Phase I of the 4th notable kingdom, the Scholastics have been unable to make the association between the ten kings and this ten nation confederacy. In their opinion, only nations on the European continent could have the status and power to qualify as the ten kings.

The ten nation confederacy of Psalms 83 is one in which ten descendants of Noah's oldest son, Shem, unite in a failed attempt to annihilate their cousin, Israel. These nations currently surround Israel and are all Sunni Arab Muslim: Asshur, Moab, Ammon, Ishmael, Hagar, Edom, Amalek, Philistim, Gebal, and Tyre. On today's map, these offspring of Shem primarily occupy the countries of Syria, Iraq, Gaza, Lebanon, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Yemen, UAE, Qatar, Bahrain, Oman, and portions of Jordan. Since this wing of the families of Noe still occupy their original settlement lands, the ten kings are already in their prophesied positions for the 2300 days.

A Song or Psalm of Asaph. Keep not thou silence, O God [elohiyim]: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God [Yahovah]. For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head. They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.

They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee:

The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes; Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre; Assur also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah.

In the second part of the Psalm, the fates of seven of the ten kings are compared to the fates of seven ancient middle eastern individuals who made the mistake of coming against Israel. These seven people can be representing none other than the remaining seven kings who will constitute Phase II of the 4th notable kingdom after three of the first [ten] horns [are] plucked up by the roots by the antichrist. All seven are found in the book of Judges and are associated with nations that God used to punish Israel for their tendency to worship the gods of foreign nations.

Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison: Which perished at Endor: they became as dung for the earth. Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna: Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God [elohiym] in possession.

O my God [elohiym], make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind. As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire; So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm. Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD [Yahovah]. Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth. (Psalms 83)

Law 3 says that, after the Second Coming, the seven kings of Phase II of the 4th notable kingdom will be tracked down by the Israelis and executed in the same manner as the above seven persecutors of ancient Israel. *The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.*² The fates of the seven kings are described in the accounts of two periods of servitude to foreign nations that Israel served from the 13th to the 12th centuries B.C. The first was a twenty year oppression by Jabin, King of Canaan; and Sisera, Captain of Jabin's army. Their fates are as follows.

20 Year Servitude to Jabin, King of Canaan 1257-1237 B.C.

(Judges 4.1-2) And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD [Yahovah], when Ehud was dead. And the LORD [Yahovah] sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host [army] was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

(Psalms 83.9-10) Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, [who was killed] at the brook of Kison: which perished at Endor: they became as dung for the earth.

(Judges 4.23-24) So God [elohiym] subdued on that day [at the brook of Kison] Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel. And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

(Judges 4.21) Then Jael, Heber's wife, took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him [Sisera], and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.

Israel's other period of servitude came from the hand of Midian and lasted seven years from 1198-1191 B.C. It ended when God raised up Gideon to defeat Midian and a group of nations who had pitched in the valley of Jezreel, the exact same location where the armies of the world will bivouac in preparation to overrun Jerusalem prior to the Second Coming. And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon³. Once again, there is no new thing under the sun.

7 Year Servitude to Midian 1198-1191 B.C.

(Judges 6.1) And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD [Yahovah]: and the LORD [Yahovah] delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years.

(Judges 6.33) Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.

(Judges 7.23-25) And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites.....And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

(Judges 8.10-12) Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts [armies] with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for there fell an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword... And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host [made them shutter with terror].

(Judges 8.21) Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

(Judges 8.28) Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

The End of the Alexander Anachronism

Of all the scriptures concerning the 4th notable kingdom, there is one that provides the exact moment in time in the 2300 days when Phase I ends and Phase II begins. It has been well established that Phase II begins when Lucifer is thrown to earth by Jesus after losing the war in heaven. This very event is found in Revelation's relative time line that is established by the chronological unfolding of the seal, trumpet, and vial judgements. *And the fifth angel sounded [the 5th trumpet judgement], and I saw a star [Lucifer] fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.*⁴

The first thing to pop out of the bottomless pit is the antichrist who has 1260 days to wage war on the human race before he and Lucifer are dealt with by Jesus at the Second Coming. This means that all the judgements of the seven seals and the first four trumpets will take place during the anachronistic portion of the 2300 days; the first 1,040 days prior to the rise of the antichrist; the time referred to by Jesus in the Olivet Discourse as the beginning of sorrows. An abstract of these Phase I events is as follows.

Seal 5 is a status update on those killed by the actions of the four notable kings on their horses with the opening of the first four seals.

And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. (Revelation 6.9-11)

Seal 6 brings on a great earthquake where the sun becomes black as sackcloth, and the moon becomes as blood. Stars fall on the earth and the heavens depart as a scroll being rolled up. Every mountain and island are moved out of their places. The great time of God's wrath begins; causing all men to try to hide themselves in caves from the face of Him that sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb.

Seal 7 initiates a time of silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. The seven angels standing before God are then given seven trumpets: and another angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

Trumpets 1-4: Revelation 8.7-13

The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

All of the above happens BEFORE the sounding of the fifth trumpet that casts Lucifer out of heaven and ends the Alexander anachronism. The same Greek phrase translated here as the bottomless pit is translated as the deep in Luke 8.31: and they [the demons] besought him [Jesus] that he would not command them to go out into the deep. The deep is where the fallen elohiym from the days of Noe have been kept bound prior to the fifth trumpet when they are apparently released along with the antichrist.

And the fifth angel sounded [the 5th trumpet], and I saw a star [Lucifer] fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

And in those days [of Phase II of the 4th notable kingdom] shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. (Rev 9.1-6)

C'est la vie for those who choose not as the thief chose.

Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure. (Isaiah 46.9-10)
